On Wednesday, April 28, 2021, Senior United States Probation Officer (USPO) Daniel Stewart from the District of New Mexico – Albuquerque Division contacted Pretrial Services in the Western District of Texas – El Paso Division. Senior USPO Stewart indicated that he has made multiple attempts to contact the defendant via telephone and via text, but to no avail (April 23, 26, 27, 28 and 30, 2021). In addition, Senior USPO Stewart has also attempted to contact Ms. Stacey Dutchover (friend) on April 27, 28 and 29, 2021, but also to no avail. Senior USPO Stewart further conveyed that the last time he had contact with the defendant was on February 25, 2021, via telephone.

On Thursday, April 29, 2021, Senior USPO Stewart attempted to conduct a home visit at the defendant's residence located at 4000 Blake, S.W., Unit #27, Albuquerque, New Mexico 87121, but there was no response. Furthermore, Senior USPO Stewart was able to make contact with a City of Albuquerque garbage person, who was collecting in the area and he advised that the house had been vacant for a while. On this same date, assistance was requested from the defendant's attorney, Assistant Federal Public Defender Marie Romero-Martinez in an effort to contact the defendant, but she also advised that she was unable to make contact with the defendant. Therefore, the defendant's whereabouts are unknown at this time.

The defendant did not have permission from Pretrial Services to move residence and has failed to maintain contact with Pretrial Services, as directed to do so.

Assistant United States Attorney Anthony James Rodregous has been notified of Pretrial Services' intent to file a Petition for Action requesting a warrant for arrest be issued.
